AUSPICIOUS CLOUDS

Auspicious Clouds

LEGLE PORCELAIN combines subtle and sophisticated lines with a signature circular shape to design a new pattern from a traditional symbol of good fortune. Frequently referred to as "auspicious clouds" because of the shared pronunciation between the Chinese words for "cloud" (云) and "luck" (运), the design repetition of clouds represents limitless luck and fortune.

BAMBOU

Bambou

Inspired by the resurgence of chinoiserie in the early 20th century, LEGLE PORCELAIN combines a Chinese watercolor painting of bamboo with the distinctive crackle glaze design effects of Song dynasty ceramics.

BLACK LOTUS GOLD

Black Lotus Gold

The lotus – a symbol of transformation and perseverance. Replicated endless times throughout art history, but perhaps never more elegantly than now. Stamped gold-plated lotus leaves accent the handles of Legle Porcelain's Black Lotus Gold teapots; saucers and teacup tops are sculpted into the distinguished petal silhouette.

Surpassing more than symbolism, The Black Lotus Gold Collection is as functional as it is beautiful, bringing the ideal elements of luxury, comfort and nuance.

BLACK LOTUS PLATINUM

Black Lotus Platinum

An extension of the Black Lotus Gold design, Black Lotus Platinum presents a timelier twin. Modern and contemporary, the shining platinum shimmers with a sparkle of sophistication. Embedded with artistically flattened, platinum lotus leaves, this design proposes a poetically oxymoronic symbiosis between the natural and the mechanical. The Black Lotus Platinum perfectly pinpoints the silver lining between sleek and soulful.

BLACK RUYI GOLD

Black Ruyi Gold

Black and gold are two colors that have long since exuded an impression of opulence and elegance. The Black Ruyi Gold Collection is no different. The black color gleams with a deep luminescence. And the gold shines with an aura of luxury and prosperity.

Aptly named, the Black Ruyi Gold Collection calls upon Chinese philosophy to symbolize power and good fortune. While ancient practices often employed ruyi talismans, this collection offers an entire tableware set to embody the treasured element of Chinese tradition.

BRONTE

Bronte

In 2013, a young artist from Central Saint Martins named Bronte Schwier, created a series of illustrations exclusively for LEGLE PORCELAIN, telling the story of how porcelain was first produced and shipped from China to France. Her vivid illustrations depict the remarkable journey with a refreshingly personal touch. The collection pays tribute to the history of porcelain and warmly connects it with the modern lifestyle.

Celadon Crackle

There is often so much latent beauty in imperfection. Taking the Celadon Crackle Collection for example, the crevices, with their tantalizing patterns and smoothly glazed finish, tell a story that narrates the possibility of having allure without having flawlessness. In China, before celadon, the color was called mi se or mysterious color; many believe it was a muted form of jade. The mystique of celadon's hue complimented with the precise defects in the stone write a tale of pleasurable disfigurement.

DOUBLE HAPPINESS

Double Happiness

The double happiness motif is one of China's traditional patterns, a form of script pattern. In Chinese folklore, the character “囍” (double happiness) is stylized to convey the meaning of double happiness and added joy. LEGLE PORCELAIN reinterprets the double happiness motif from a Western perspective, featuring intricate patterns on a deep black background to symbolize best wishes for diners.

ECLIPSE

GOLD & PLATINUM

Eclipse - Gold & Platinum

The bright, white center of the collection encased in waning gold and platinum rims evokes the arched shadow of earth's sphere during an eclipse. The gradience inventively resembles the famed lullaby, while the center reminds of the peaceful piano ivories that constitute the moonlit melody. The diminishing shimmer of the circumference is reminiscent of the everchanging phases of the moon.

REACTIVE GLAZE

Eclipse - Hand Spray Reactive Glaze

The moon stares down at Earth almost as if it were a friend whom humanity has not yet been fully introduced to. Close enough to notice it is textured and shadowed but far enough away to leave society in wonderment of its mysticism.

Textured with speckles from glaze spray and shadowed with gradience from the reactive glaze, the tableware mimics its faraway friend. The Eclipse Reactive Glaze design brings something so far away, so close to home.

EGGSHELL CRACKLE

Eggshell Crackle

"Eggshell Lacquer", as the name suggests, refers to lacquerware made by assembling pieces of eggshell. Ancient artisans used lacquer as an adhesive to reshape the broken shells, imitating the crackle glaze effect of Song Dynasty Ge ware. LEGLE PORCELAIN pays homage to this unique craft, recreating the rich texture of eggshell lacquer with platinum-trimmed porcelain edges, enhancing the beauty of everyday life.

IRON OXIDE

Iron Oxide

The Iron Oxide Collection eschews elaborate decorations, opting instead for a rustic rusted finish that captures the essence of time's sedimentation on each piece of porcelain. Just as time eventually erodes superficial splendor to reveal the truest essence, the Iron Oxide Collection is not merely a tribute to the passage of time but also a celebration of the enduring spirit and strength that withstand the ages.

JARDIN DE PARIS

Jardin De Paris

"She wanted to live, and live fully, and to give life, she who loved life! What was the good of existing, if you couldn't give yourself?" – Émile Zola, "La Joie de Vivre"

A collaboration with French artist and designer Brigitte Murat, the Jardin de Paris Collection takes inspiration from the romantic gardens of Paris. Murat's charming sketches of pastel flowers, manicured lawns, and French architecture lift the spirits and evoke the French joie de vivre.

RUYI PLATINUM

Ruyi Platinum

Gleaming with the warm luster and translucence of fine jade, Ruyi is one of LEGLE PORCELAIN signature collections. The rounded corners, fluid curves, and clean lines embody the essence of Chinese ethos and philosophy. Meticulously and elegantly lined in platinum, the collection is perfectly suited for both Chinese and Western gastronomy.

TAHITI

TAHITI

Inspired by Paul Gauguin's color philosophy, this set of exotic and magnificent works blends Tahiti's intense, bold, and pure color tones. The collection also carries a focus on the underlying meanings of the selected rare and wonderful beasts, such as the powerful leopard, the mysterious blue peacock, and the delicate grey-purple ostrich patterns.
